On November 1, 2015, at approximately 9:15 p.m., officers from the San Bruno Police Department responded to a hotel located at 500 El Camino Real in an effort to locate a subject who was wanted on a felony warrant issued in San Mateo County.

After several minutes of delaying, the occupants of the room opened the door. Officers contacted the adult male who was subject to the warrant and an adult female. Officers conducted a search of the hotel room and located suspected fraudulent credit cards in the water tank of the toilet as well as suspected methamphetamine. It appeared as if the suspects had attempted to destroy this evidence prior to their contact with police officers.

Both individuals were booked into the San Mateo County Jail and charged with possession of a controlled substance, alteration of an access card, and obstructing/delaying a peace officer.
